From the Pastor's Desk

Pastor Dick Hotchkin

The following words come from one of Johannes Tauler's (ca. 1300-1361) sermons: "Everyone should do for his neighbor what his neighbor cannot do so well as he, and in this way, by his love for others, he thanks God for His graces. Be sure of this: if we are not useful, profitable, and helpful to our neighbor, we shall have much to answer for before God. The Gospel says that everyone will have to give an account of his stewardship. Each one of us has an obligation to pay back as best he can what he has received from God, because God gave it to him for the benefit of others."

These words of Tauler remind me of an interesting story. When God created the cosmos, God blessed each angel with a talent to take care of a part of creation. One angel was blessed with the talent to make the stars shine brightly; another had the gift of making the ocean waves roll; and still another painted the sky blue. However, the angel in charge of the grass was not happy. "What kind of job is this?" thought the angel. "The grass is here today and gone tomorrow. Why should I worry about something so unimportant?" So the angel forgot all about the grass. After a month of leading a carefree life, the angel noticed that the grass had all turned brown. The animals in every land were starving; the earth was eroding away from the rains; and the angels in charge of these things complained to God. Feeling ashamed, the angel went and fell down before God, begging for forgiveness. God said, "I give no meaningless gift in this world. Everyone has a talent to use for the good of creation. When one angel refuses to take care of what I have given, no matter how insignificant the task may seem, all of creation suffers."

The spiritual reality is that each of us is created with a God-given talent that others need. If we refuse to share that gift with others, then the task is left undone, and all of creation suffers. Our blessed talents are not ours to do with as we please, but they are bestowed upon us by God in order that we might share them. When we withhold these gifts from others, then we become thieves stealing from our neighbor. Proverbs 25:14 captures the notion rather well: "Like clouds and wind without rain is one who boasts of a gift never given."

- ♦ Altar Flowers take a moment to sign up. If you do not wish to purchase fresh flowers, think about flowers from your garden, or a Mum plant, Peace Lily, Blooming Christmas Cactus, gourds, Cornucopia, pine green, branches of fall leaves. Use your imagination to share a beautiful plant or arrangement.
- ♦ The Worship Committee and Special Events Team would like to host a Christmas Open House. For that to happen, we would need the Church decorated. Max & Vicky Lindsay have graciously agreed to organize the decorating of the Sanctuary again this year, but, we also need people to organize the decorating of the Chapel, Show Case, Lower Lounge and Fellowship Hall. If you are able and willing to participate and organize the decorating of these specific areas, please contact the church office, Marilyn Kettler or Deborah Butler Desimone.

Online Giving—A New Opportunity

Denise Fusina, Treasurer

Online Giving – A New Opportunity

We want to start by expressing gratitude for your unwavering support and generosity towards our church. Your contributions have been essential to our ability to continue carrying out our mission and serving the needs of our community.

You now have access to our new e-giving platform, Vanco. This platform provides a secure and user-friendly way to give to our church online, and we are confident that it will make giving more convenient for many members of our congregation as well as friends from outside our membership.

You can choose to give via Vanco's mobile app, QR code found below or going to our web page on your desktop, phone, or tablet.

When going to our web page (our web page (<https://www.uccalpena.org/>), <https://www.uccalpena.org/>), you will find a "Donate" button located near the top of the page. Click on the "Donate" button, to go to our secure Vanco online giving page. There, you will find "tiles" for the General Fund, Mission Fund, or other special giving opportunities like Neighbors in Need. Click on the giving tile you choose to support, for instance General Fund, and it takes you to a form to complete. (You will need to create an account the first time you give). Your online donation can be by credit card or ACH bank debit. Choosing a one-time gift or a repeating gift (like payments on your pledge) and covering the credit card service fee (2.9%) or ACH fee (1%) are options offered for each gift.

Whether you choose to give online or in person, your support is vital to the continued success of our church community. We are so grateful for your generosity and commitment to our shared mission.

More detailed instructions can be found on the table can be found on the table at the rear of the sanctuary. Email me at: mail me at: apnuccbookkeeper@gmail.com if you have any questions and I will be happy to assist.

Neighbors in Need

Pat Garant

In 2024, the Neighbors in Need theme is “Mental Health, Justice for All!” This year’s focus is on Mental Health Justice. In 2015, the General Synod of the United Church of Christ passed a resolution to become WISE (Welcoming, Inclusive, Supportive, and Engaged) for mental health. A just world for all is a world where the human rights and well-being of people with mental health challenges are respected, no matter who you are in life’s mental health journey. Please join us in promoting this year’s NIN “Mental Health is a Universal Human Right”. As you may recall, one-third of the offering supports Council for American Indian Ministry (CAIM). Two-thirds are used by Justice and Witness Ministries to provide grants to UCC churches and organizations as well as supporting a variety of justice initiative, advocacy efforts, and direct service projects.

In addition to donating during Sunday service, you may also drop off or send a check to the church office (made out to First Congregational Church with a note ‘for NIN’) anytime during October.
